

It's Your Choice Contest

60 seconds

Gym sounds... Guy and girl (single, late 20s / early 30s) talking in the gym's lounge area.

Girl: Towel please...

(Talking to counter person, just to establish that she is at the gym, done with her workout. She sits down near a guy in the lounge area and makes an exhausted sound)

Guy: Hard work out today?

Girl: Uh-huh...

Guy: (paper rattling) it says here that if your workout isn't a challenge, than it isn't really a workout.

Girl: Oh yeah, I read that in The Patriot while I was on the treadmill.

Guy: The Patriot? Oh, that new compact edition...

Girl: Yeah, I got it on the way home from work a few weeks ago and I'm hooked. After work, it comes with me wherever I go and by the time I get home, I'm all caught up.

Guy: I like it, but I still prefer The Patriot-News. Just my style, I guess.

Girl: Really? Well, it's a good thing that you have a choice.

Guy: Mmm-hmm... Hey, do you want do a couple more laps?

Girl: (groans) Do I have a choice?

Guy: Dinner, maybe?

Girl: Now that's more like it.

Woman announcer:

Keeping you informed is what The Patriot-News is all about, and we understand that not everybody has the same amount of time to read the paper and that everyone has different ways of using the paper. Now, Monday through Friday, you can choose which edition fits your lifestyle: The Patriot-News or The Patriot, the new weekday compact edition designed especially for time-starved people. Pick up either paper between July 17 and August 14 and you can enter to win the "It's Your Choice" contest. Not only can you choose the patriot newspaper that fits your lifestyle, but winners will also be able to choose the prize that best suits them in categories like travel, home theatre, resort, bedding, jewelry and furniture. Look for your chance to win in the "It's Your Choice" contest in The Patriot compact edition or The Patriot-News through August 14.
